

Role Description: Volunteer Host Support Worker

About Sanctuary Hosting

Sanctuary Hosting matches homeless asylum seekers, refugees and vulnerable migrants to people (our 'hosts') who are willing to have someone (a 'guest') to stay with them rent free, for a pre-defined period of time, while the individual is receiving support to explore routes out of destitution.

About this role

Host support workers provide vital support to the people who welcome guests into their homes. They are the main contact point for hosts and are essential in maintaining good links and communication between a host and Sanctuary Hosting.

Host support workers may:

- Meet potential hosts who have applied to Sanctuary Hosting and inform them about the hosting scheme, and the work and ethos of the charity
- Assess their appropriateness as hosts and risk assess the physical environment being offered
- Provide ongoing support to hosts who have guests staying, to foster a successful hosting placement
